

THE MOUNTAINEER

October 19, 2007 | Friday

Bojangles holds grand opening

Photos by Michael Rich

IT'S OFFICIAL — Thursday, Bojangles, located at the junction of Dellwood Road and U.S. 19, held it's official grand opening. Above is the wide variety of selections offered. Below, co-manager Dean Manier of Clyde stands in front of the establishment.

U.S. 19 restaurant is one of 235

Bojangles Famous Chicken n' Biscuits cut the ribbon on its newest restaurant in Waynesville Thursday.

The new facility is the 16th Bojangles restaurant for the BOJ of WNC, LLC franchise group and is located at 1119 Dellwood road (U.S. 19), Lake Junaluska.

Scott Sandridge, a resident of Waynesville will be the unit director. He has been the unit director of the Bojangles store in Candler for the more than three years. Lou Ignaczak, also of Waynesville and a veteran Bojangles manager, will be a co-manager as well as Dean Manier of Clyde.

Bojangles Restaurants Inc. headquartered in Charlotte, is the parent company for Bojangles quick service restaurants.

There are 142 company owned stores and 235 franchise units located principally in the Southeast.

